

NEXT Device Issue Policy

All parents and/or learners are required to sign and follow this Acceptable Use Policy if they wish for their ward to use the school issued devices. All the school's IT systems including email, internet, networks, G-Suite, Managebac/Toddle are subject to this Acceptable Use Policy.

Your device that is used for school work will have to conform to this Acceptable Use Policy. Parents and learners agree not to, and not to allow third parties to do the following:

- To install and use unlicensed software and files on their machines
- To intentionally damage, vandalize or remove any part of the hardware or peripherals
- To violate, or encourage the violation of, the legal rights of others (for example, this may include allowing Customer End Users to infringe or misappropriate the intellectual property rights of others in violation of the DMCA);
- To engage in, promote or encourage illegal activity; including obscenity, sexually explicit material or expressions of bigotry or hate
- For any unlawful, invasive, infringing, defamatory or fraudulent purpose (for example, this may include phishing, creating a pyramid scheme or mirroring a website);
- To intentionally distribute viruses, worms, Trojan horses, corrupted files, hoaxes, or other items of a destructive or deceptive nature;
- To disclose, use, or disseminate any personal information regarding minors without explicit permission from the guardians and Head of School.
- To disable, interfere with or circumvent any aspect of the network or other services;
- To generate, distribute, publish or facilitate unsolicited mass email, promotions, advertising or other solicitations ("spam"); or
- To use the Services, or any interfaces provided with the Services, to access any other Google product or service in a manner that violates the terms of service of such other Google product or service.

In general when you or your ward use school devices you assume personal responsibility and liability, both civil and criminal, for uses of the Devices not authorized by this policy and its accompanying guidelines.

Email code of conduct

Each of you has been provided access to a nextschool.org id. This email gives you access to the school's G-Suite and is to be used for all official communication.

Do not share your password with anyone - any breach should be reported to the IT team immediately.

G Suite and Google Drive

Save all your documentation and all student data in the folder specified on Google Drive. No material stored on the Drive is meant to be private. The team's IT team might monitor or audit the logs on the device or drive to check for acceptable use.

The school's IT team will review the system from time to time and announce updates to the policy as needed.

Use of Recording

All sessions if recorded are meant to be viewed only by learners to catch up on their sessions are to be strictly not shared or viewed outside the school.

Policy Violation

In the event of willful unacceptable use of the Next School Acceptable Use Policy, one or more of the following steps may be taken;

- Official warning
- Revocation of the personal device
- Appropriate consequences in accordance with the School's disciplinary policy
- Referral to the appropriate law enforcement authorities if necessary

I understand that if the school decides that I have violated the Acceptable Use Policy, appropriate action will be taken. This may include a loss of the issued school device or referral to external authorities.
